

Example 002: tiller steered boat with self-aligning bearings for ease of installation and to compensate for any bend of the shaft while sailing. Note the sealing tube mounted in a chamber in the outer housing and not around the complete bearing. The tube is an extension of the outer housing of the bottom bearing.