

Example 005: typical composite tiller steered boat. The 6T000 GRP bottom roller bearing is a perfect solution when the hull isn't perpendicular to the rudder shaft, simplifying the solution significantly as the GRP tube can be grinded flush to the hull after installation. This bottom bearing is also ideal for replacement rudder systems as the GRP tube can be easily laminated to the hull.